Chicago, Oct. 17.—[Special].—Wheat, active, excited, with prices showing further marked improvement. There was general buying on strong cable reports, and offerings being comparatively small, prices were advanced with only slight fluctuations. There was good outside business, and local operators also traded more freely. The demand exceeded the supply. Opening was 1/2, and advancing almost steadily, closed at 1 1/2 higher.

Corn was quite active at times. Good speculative business was transacted within 1/2@1 range. The feeling prevailing was stronger and still further advance was recorded on all futures. Advance was due largely to the raise in wheat and oats.

First trades were at small decline, but prices soon advanced and closed 1/4 higher. Oats—trading was large and well divided. Interest was in May. Market opened unsettled at 1 1/2@1 1/4 decline. Weakness was only temporary, as buyers outnumbered sellers, and prices moved up 1/4. This brought out increased offering and on sales to realize prices fell off fractionally. Close was steady. Mess pork more doing early sale were at 2 1/2 decline, but prices quickly rallied 10@12 1/2 later and closed steady, but with part of advance lost. Lard trading moderate. In some instance stances advance 1/2 was effected. Short rib sides fairly good trade was reported. Prices were little more favorable to sellers and market closed steady at outside figures.

HUSTINGS COURT.

The Sadler-Lindsay Murder Trial Concluded—Sadler's Sentence.

The case of William Sadler indicted for the murder of John Lindsay, colored, occupied a large share of the attention of the court yesterday. Lindsay and several white men were at Woodland Park drinking whiskey and he and Sadler had a misunderstanding. According to the testimony of witnesses Sadler used abusive epithets towards Lindsay, and the latter, when Lindsay was lying down under the trees, called him to account and, it is said, struck him on the head with a stone.

Lindsay ran off and a few days afterwards was attacked with inflammation of the brain, which caused his death.

The attorneys for Sadler were Messrs. Herkley and Philgar, and Roy B. Smith, Esq., represented the State. A number of witnesses were examined, and after the case had been fully argued the jury returned a verdict finding Sadler $500 and sentencing him to three months' confinement in the city jail.

The jury in the case was composed as follows: J. H. Funkhouser, C. W. Oney, H. Hartberger, W. R. Puryear, W. H. Kames, C. L. Patterson, W. H. Startzman, W. L. Patterson, Jack D. Smith, J. W. Lake, L. D. Filson, W. W. Workman.

VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA CONSTRUCTION COMPANY.—Office of Chief Engineer. Bids will be received until October 25, 1890, for the construction of 13 miles of the Roanoke and Southern Railway from Roanoke, Va., southward. The profile may be seen at Room No. 21, Moomaw Building, Jefferson street, Roanoke, Va. ANDREW ONDERDONK, Chief Engineer.

Breaking the Record

Just when the season is at its height, something rarely done. In consequence of the inclemency of the weather, and backwardness of the season, we have entirely too many men and boy's suits on hand, and have determined they shall move more lively now in order to create a little stir and excitement amongst the trade.

We're going to let go, as flyers, as follows: Sale commencing to-morrow and will continue for one week.

Here's How We Sacrifice.

500 men's cassimere suits at $5.75 per suit. The regular prices of these suits have been $8 and $10. Twenty different patterns to select from. This is the greatest bargain ever offered in this city.

For one week only we will sell men's overcoats, previously marked $16, $14 and $12, for $8 each.

Rich, satin-lined kersey and melton overcoats, previously marked $18 and $16, for $8.75 each.

$2 men's pants 90 cents per pair.

Boys' handsome winter suits, previously marked $5, for $2.90 per suit.

500 men's fleeced merino undershirts 39 cents.

Make Hay While the Sun Shines.

Boys' cassimere suits, previously marked $2 and $2.50, for $1.08 per suit.

$4 men's pants for $1.90 per pair.

Remember this sacrifice is on the altar of necessity; room is needed for goods which are arriving every day. We are over-stocked, and don't care who knows it, but we have the nerve to face the music of necessity and stand the loss. Prices within the range of everyone. All seasons, choice and stylish goods. A complete range of sizes, cleanly made, and nicely trimmed.

All we can say is: "Do not put one dollar in clothing this week until you have been here and convinced yourself that what is here advertised are facts." This motto is well applied:

"FIRST COME BEST SERVED."
